Successful Learners

Areas of learning

As sociologists we will find out about ourselves, our families, our cultures and beliefs and those of the wider community.

As designers we will first design and then make a variety of objects. We will begin to evaluate our work and make improvements.

As artists we will respond to what we experience using a range of media and contexts. We will develop our creativity and use of our imagination

As successful learners we will be:- playing and exploring; be active in our learning and be creating and thinking critically. We will also explore our interests and use them to further our learning.
